

You are invited to become a sponsor for the Management Women, Inc. 2018 Heels, Hopes & Higher Education Seminar!

Management Women is a local non-profit organization whose mission is to promote professional growth and development of women by women. To share and support our mission, each year we offer the Heels, Hopes & Higher Education Seminar featuring a keynote speaker who focuses on professional development and growth. The seminar also offers a unique opportunity for charitable fundraising for scholarships as well as networking time with a dynamic group of professional women.

Event Date: October 10, 2018 at The Radisson Hotel & Conference Center

Your support of this event provides important professional development for women, and an excellent forum for networking. In addition, this seminar generates funds to support Management Women's scholarship program for future professionals. Because of the generosity of sponsors like you, our organization awarded $42,000 in scholarships in May 2017 bringing our cumulative total to $325,000 in scholarships awarded to area women pursuing post-secondary education.

For your convenience, we've included more information on these sponsorship opportunities to help in your decision. To become a sponsor of this exciting event, or a multi-year sponsor, please complete the attached Sponsorship Reservation form and mail or email to us.
